Whittle Jones; managing agents acting on behalf of Northern Trust are pleased to confirm that they have completed another letting at their Jewellery Business Centre in Birmingham to Rampage Aesthetics. The letting of the 119 sq ft ground floor suite has been agreed on a 3 year lease agreement.

Rampage Aesthetics was founded in 2017 by husband and wife team, Bal and Farah Sidhu; and are a rapidly growing business providing Personal Training and Massage Therapy Services.

Bal Sidhu commented about his move to Jewellery Business Centre “During lockdown I started searching for premises from which I could carry out my therapy services. I needed somewhere local to my current client base, and I viewed an office in the Jewellery Business Centre at the beginning of June. I was instantly impressed with the professional vibe, clean environment and the overall feel of the place. I moved in and was all set up by 1st July (my request for 4 weeks). I love my new office; it has plenty of space and meets all my needs. My clients and visitors have told me how professional it all is. Lisa, Michael and Caroline have been absolute stars, they go above and beyond to help you and ensure you have settled in and have everything you need. If you are looking for a professional clean environment to run your business from then get in touch with the Jewellery Business Centre, you will not be disappointed. Visit <https://rampageaesthetics.com/> for more details on the services we offer.”

Caroline Jones, Lettings Manager at Whittle Jones Midlands said “I am delighted to welcome Bal and his Rampage Aesthetics team to Jewellery Business Centre. They have been a pleasure to work with, and I am looking forward to seeing them develop their business further. We have seen an increase in demand for our serviced offices which can provide socially distanced space within a secure modern working environment.”
